

PENNSYLVANIA MARYLAND

WASHINGTON D.C. NEW YORK

ISSUE 8 ∞ FEBRUARY 2000 ∞ FREE

UHERO.COM

UNSUNG HERO

THE PREMIER MUSIC & ARTS MAGAZINE

SLAVE'S Quick Whip

Throttle 5

(Options?)—At last. Many of us have waited a long time for this CD. One of PA's most competent, exciting, and underrated rock outfits delivers the original hardware here. Everyone knows how good they are live, now they've tracked their talent to disc. Smashing, baby.

Contact: Two Six Management: 610.488.8727
e-mail: THROTTLE5WORLDNET.ATT.NET
WEB: THROTTLE5.COM

Jeremy De Prisco

(Mandala)—Sensitive, purposeful, and masterful. A modern-day Gordon Lightfoot/Cat Stevens with an inclination for Buddhism. Strong, intelligent, and mature—grassroots songwriting coupled with accomplished playing. Every phrase, every note moves with love and meaning. I have a feeling that Jeremy is right where he wants to be. Contact: Blue Buddha Records, P.O. Box 4936, Harrisburg, PA 17111-0936. Web: www.mindspcak.com or www.mindspcak.com/mandala.htm.

Falcon Jones

(Self-titled)—Mesmerizing melancholy. The first song on this disc, "Newton," is utterly captivating, as is the entire CD, for that matter. Falcon

Jones is sweet sadness—the angelic hush of walking alone in a snowstorm, the power you find when you're down and small. Instruments are emotion on this soundscape, cooperating fully with the feelings that provoked each song.

Reflective yet immediate, I want to look at pictures of my own life. Don't fuck with the formula. Don't let anyone or anything change what you're doing. (Contact: Falcon Jones, 429 Nevin St., Lancaster, PA 17603).

*Hey musicians & bands of any style!
send your CD/demo/tape to:
Unsung Hero, c/o SLAVE,
116 Carlisle St. Gettysburg PA 17325
... and I'll give it the quick whip!*